"Mike Rogers: Our Way of Fighting Back"

Sabato Says Rogers Seat "Safe Republican"

Anniston, AL—Respected Political Scientist, Larry Sabato of the University of Virginia, announced on February 25th that Mike Rogers has improved his prospects for re-election. Sabato now labels the seat as "safe Republican," his most optimistic designation, another sign that voters are fed up with the direction of the Nation and are laying blame at the feet of liberal policies being pushed by Speaker Nancy Pelosi and Harry Reid. "In spite of this encouraging news, I am not taking anything for granted. The people of East Alabama are hurting and our campaign is going to travel every corner of this district over the next several months to make sure that our message of lower taxes and sound economic policy is heard by voters," said Rogers.

Rogers said the news follows the recent announcement by Congressional Quarterly, which also called AL-3 "Safe Republican."

Rogers serves on the House Armed Services, Agriculture and Homeland Securities Committees. He was elected to Congress in 2002 and is on the web at www.mikerogersforcongress.com
